

Landscape Design: The Mixed Species Yard

In honor of National Garden Week (June 6-12) Gail Dresner of Circadian Landscape Design will speak about successfully integrating people and wildlife into landscape design. Refreshments will be provided. This program is free and open to the public, but attendees are asked to bring food donations for the food bank. This event is co-sponsored by the West Linn Public Library and the West Linn Garden Club.

Gail is a professional landscape designer and a licensed landscape contractor. Her business is one of only a few City of Portland eco-certified businesses. Her design specialization areas are green design, native plants, and wildlife-friendly landscaping. She conducts many seminars and workshops and enjoys sharing her experience and knowledge.
